Project 2

You need to create a program for customers to place order online.

- It should display the items in the shop with the no of quantity available.
- It should display the items in the cart and display the total amount of items in the cart.
- Customer can place order or can exit without placing order.